Are you a first-time applicant to FHLBank Indianapolis' AHP program and want to ensure you understand all requirements? A seasoned candidate looking to stay up to date on expectations for the current funding round? In search of tips to ensure your application remains both eligible and competitive? You're in luck! Our Community Investment team is proud to present two separate training webinars, one each for homeownership and rental projects, designed all that and more.

This training is designed to provide a solid foundation for sponsor organizations and member institutions to submit eligible, competitive funding applications for AHP rental projects.
