

Homeland Security

Targeted Violence and Terrorism Prevention Grant Program Applicant Resources

The Fiscal Year 2024 (FY24) TVTP Application Guidance has been released! View the forecasted opportunity and download the application guidance.

The Department of Homeland Security welcomes all eligible entities to apply to the TVTP Grant Program. DHS seeks new applicants each year, including those new to DHS or federal grants and those from historically disadvantaged and marginalized communities. The resources on this page are provided to help applicants navigate the application process and develop a competitive application. CP3 is holding webinars for prospective applicants for the FY2024 TVTP Grant Program on the below dates. The presentation will cover a general overview of the program, the types of projects funded, resources that applicants can leverage to complete their applications, and an opportunity to ask questions. Each presentation will cover the same material; please register for the date that works best for your schedule.

- Wed, Feb. 7: 1-2 p.m. EST
- Tues, Feb. 13: 3-4 p.m. EST
- Thurs, Feb. 15: 1-2 p.m. EST

Eligible Applicants

U.S. state, local, tribal, and territorial government agencies, institutions of higher education, and nonprofits.

The TVTP Grant Program funds the development of capabilities based on current promising practices as well as reserves approximately 25-30% of available funding for new or innovative approaches to prevention.

Promising Practices Project Types

1. Raising Societal Awareness
2. Understanding Violent Content
3. Civic Engagement
4. Youth Resilience Programs
5. Threat Assessment and Management Teams
6. Bystander Training
7. Referral Services
8. Recidivism Reduction and Reintegration

Direct additional questions to TerrorismPrevention@hq.dhs.gov.